M. E. CONFERENCE

Need of Church Extension Discussed at Brightwood Meeting.

The necessity of raising funds for extending the Methodist Church was the chief topic discussed yesterday afternoon at the meeting of the Baltimore and district conference of the Baltimore and all conference of the Baltimore and all conference of the M. E. Church South, which has been in session for three days at Emory Chapel, Brightwood.

"It certainly looks as if there were plenty of people to patronize an August nuceting near New York," said Mr. Thomas as he glauced over the grand-stand and the field inclosure, "and there is no fault to be found with the racing. I have not yet thought about sending any of my horses here, but it is possible I may later if it seems there are races they can win!"

The "donesmiths" are today pretty that the regulars will fall down on the long ranges where the District of Columbia, for instance, has always been strong.

Of the District team the following have qualified for candidacy for the Palma team: Lieut, Col. L. C. Reichelderfer, Capt. W. W. Cookson, Capt. Alexander Summers, Lieut. Fritz Heidenreich, and Sergeant O. M. Schrive Lieut, W. Milton Farrow, of the District, is also here for the try-out.

The District team had a scare Tuescay morning that got on its nerves for a few hours. Lieutenant Coloner Reichelderfer and Maj. R. P. Robbins fanned fourteen and was hit eight times. He soared in the fifth and let in five runs, but his batters saved the day in the next session by netting four tallies. This tied the score and Johnson's double.
